II. BATTLE HONORS.—As authorized by Executive Order 9396 (sec. I, WD Bul. 22, 1943), superseding Executive Order 9075 (sec. III, WD Bul. 11, 1942), the following units are cited under the provisions of AR 260-15 in the name of the President of the United States as public evidence of deserved honor and distinction. The citation reads as follows:

The 1st Battalion, 359th Infantry Regiment, and Detachment, Headquarters, 90th Infantry Division, and Company B, 712th Tank Battalion, supporting units, are cited for exceptionally outstanding performance of duty in action against the enemy on 16 and 17 August 1944 in Le Bourg St. Leonard, France. On 16 August, elements of the 1st Battalion in Le Bourg St. Leonard were attacked by a superior enemy force, attempting to clear the area of an escape route for their entrapped forces. The battle raged all day, tanks battled furiously throughout the encounter, and by evening the 1st Battalion had regained part of the lost ground. The following morning, the enemy attacked in regimental strength and seized the town. Late in the afternoon, the 1st Battalion, reinforced by tanks and tank destroyers and inspired by superior leadership, launched a determined attack that secured Le Bourg St. Leonard. The exceptionally outstanding achievements and heroic action displayed in securing this key terrain reflect great credit on the 1st Battalion, 359th Infantry Regiment, and supporting units, and are in keeping with the highest traditions of the Army of the United States.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF THE ARMY:

OFFICIAL:

EDWARD F. WITSJILL

Major General

The Adjutant General

OMAR N. BRADLEY

Chief of Staff, United States Army
