I. DISTINGUISHED-SERVICE CROSS.—By direction of the President, under the act of Congress approved 9 July 1918 (WD Bul. 43, 1918), the Distinguished-Service Cross for extraordinary heroism in action against an enemy during the period indicated is awarded posthumously to the following-named enlisted man:

Corporal Charles W. Sherwood (Service No. RA ), Infantry, United States Army, a member of Company D, 23d Infantry Regiment, distinguished himself by extraordinary heroism in action against the enemy near Chipyong, Korea, from 13 to 15 February 1951. When his unit was attacked by a large enemy force during the night of 13 February, Corporal Sherwood, although wounded by enemy small-arms fire, remained in his position and inflicted heavy casualties until his machine gun was knocked out by hostile fire. The enemy closed to within 20 yards, but he coolly held them off with his pistol until another machine gun could be brought up. A second attempt was made to overrun his position, but Corporal Sherwood, heedless of intense hostile fire, accounted for 26 enemy dead before this weapon also was knocked out. On the night of 15 February, a reinforced enemy group made a final attempt to overrun the positions. Corporal Sherwood once more manned his gun and, despite intense hostile mortar, artillery, and small-arms fire, inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy until he was mortally wounded. The courage, tenacity, and devotion to duty demonstrated by Corporal Sherwood reflect great credit on himself and uphold the esteemed traditions of the United States Army.

Realizing fully the risk involved and the great danger to all personnel of the aircraft, Sergeant Drew moved behind the loaded equipment, removed his reserve parachute, and lay prone on floor of the ship with head and shoulders outside the plane in the slipstream to recover and reposition the equipment, thus removing a very serious threat to the stability and safety of the aircraft. Had the heavy load broken free while he was behind it he, would have been killed instantly. When the system failed to function the second time, Sergeant Drew repeated the procedure.
