November 1952 to January 1960.

V..SOLDIER'S MEDAL. By direction of the President, under the provisions of the act of Congress, approved 2 July 1926, a Soldier's Medal for heroism not involving actual conflict with an enemy is awarded to Recruit Harold R. Lee, RA18595733, United States Army, a member of Company C, Third Battalion, United States Army Medical Training Center, Fort Sam Houston, Tex., distinguished himself by heroism on 9 July 1960. While driving from his home to Fort Sam Houston, Tex., Recruit Lee noticed a gasoline fire in the rear of a truck driven by a civilian approximately 1 mile from West, Tex. He quickly notified the driver who, realizing that he lacked proper firefighting equipment, backed the truck into a nearby body of water. There was an immediate dropoff of approximately 15 feet, and the truck plunged instantly to the bottom of the deep water. Promptly determining that the driver of the burning truck was unable to extricate himself, Recruit Lee, unhesitatingly and with complete disregard for his own personal safety, dived into the deep water and rescued the trapped man through the window of the truck. The unselfish courage, prompt actions and presence of mind displayed by Recruit Lee in saving the life of a fellow man in this sudden emergency are worthy of emulation, and reflect the utmost credit upon himself and the military service.

VI..AIR MEDAL. By direction of the President, under the provisions of Executive Order 9158, 11 May 1942, as amended by Executive Order 9242-A, 11 September 1942, an Air Medal for meritorious achievement while participating in aerial flight is awarded by the Department of the Army to Captain Dennis M. Boyle, O76960, Armor, United States Army. 6 April 1960.
