Private First Class Robert A. Unruh, , Military Police Corps, United States Army, 188th Military Police Company, United States Army Post Area Command, United States Forces, Europe, distinguished himself by heroism on 2 December 1962, at La Pallice Port, La Rochelle, France. While performing security guard duty at the Port, Private Unruh heard a call for help coming from the direction of a docked Military Sea Transportation Service vessel. Upon arriving at the scene, he observed that a seaman had fallen off the gangway and was wedged in an eighteen inch aperture between the ship and the pier, approximately fifteen feet below the pier level. With complete disregard for his own personal safety, Private Unruh unhesitatingly attempted to rescue the seaman despite the grave danger of being crushed by any movement of the ship in the choppy waters. He courageously descended a pilot ladder which was lowered between the ship and the dock and, in the midst of the extremely hazardous circumstances, secured a rope around the seaman and had him hoisted to safety. Private Unruh's prompt and heroic action in this emergency are in the highest traditions of the United States Army and reflect great credit upon himself and the military service. (This award supersedes the award of the Army Commendation Medal to Private Unruh for heroism on 2 December 1962 as announced in General Orders Number 32, Headquarters, United States Army Communications Zone, Europe, dated 2 April 1963.)
