I. DISTINGUISHED SERVICE MEDAL. By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved 9 July 1918, the Distinguished Service Medal for exceptionally meritorious and distinguished service in a position of great responsibility is awarded to:

Major General Henry A. Miley, Jr., , United States Army.
 November 1964 to August 1966.

II. SILVER STAR. By direction of the President, under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved 9 July 1918, a Silver Star for gallantry in action is awarded posthumously to:

Master Sergeant Kenneth M. Roraback, , (then Sergeant First Class), United States Army, distinguished himself on 24 November 1963, when a large Viet Cong force attacked the Special Forces Camp at Hiep Hoa, Republic of Vietnam. Master Sergeant Roraback, working in the radio room, immediately began to notify higher headquarters of the situation. The heavy volume of high and flat trajectory fire destroyed the generators, damaged the radios, and knocked out a portion of the radio room. Despite this, Master Sergeant Roraback remained at his station and attempted to repair his radio. When it became apparent that the radio was beyond repair, Master Sergeant Roraback destroyed and set fire to the remainder of what was left of the radios, equipment, and radio room to keep the Viet Cong from salvaging anything later. This accomplished, Master Sergeant Roraback maneuvered through hostile fire and mortar fragments, and manned a light machinegun concentrating his fire on the Viet Cong within the compound. Master Sergeant Roraback valiantly remained at his position and covered the withdrawal of friendly forces as long as he could. Reluctantly, he left his position when ordered by his Commanding Officer to withdraw from the camp and moved into the darkness to rejoin his comrades. In the confusion of battle, Master Sergeant Roraback was captured by the Viet Cong only when he no longer had any means to resist and was in captivity until issuance of a presumptive finding of death by Headquarters, Department of the Army, on 1 July 1966. Master Sergeant Roraback's extraordinary heroism in close combat against
