Operating in the Republic of Vietnam since 12 July 1965, aside from its splendid military victories, the U.S. 1st Infantry Division has also achieved great success in its efforts to relieve suffering and distress caused by the war in South Vietnam. Significantly, it has provided highly effective support for the Pacification and Reconstruction Campaign of the Republic of Vietnam Government, achieving successful results. With a charitable spirit and immeasurable effort to counter harassing and subversive activities of the Communists, the civil affairs program of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division has been extensive. With money contributed by servicemen, and with 740,176 man-hours of activities in support of the civil affairs program in the fields of public health, social welfare, education, communication, economic development and psychological warfare, the U.S. 1st Infantry Division has achieved outstanding results. The U.S. 1st Infantry Division has contributed significantly to the fight against the Communists and to the national reconstruction efforts of the Republic of Vietnam.

The citation reads as follows:

The 4th Infantry Division as an outstanding fighting unit, with excellent soldiers, has always distinguished itself through exceptional spirit in civil affairs activities. During the 3 years of service in Vietnam from 1 October 1966 to 31 October 1969, in addition to its duties of providing military assistance to the Armed Forces of the Republic of Vietnam in its operations against the enemy, the 4th Infantry Division also constantly sought to overcome every difficulty in assisting the citizens of Vietnam and the regional officials in the field in civil actions projects. Among many other accomplishments, the 4th Infantry Division provided the people of Plieku, Kontum, and Binh Dinh provinces with food, clothing, and medical equipment, as well as preparing and building schools, and settling the population into the 12th and 19th "New Life" hamlets of the government. In addition, the 4th Infantry Division was instrumental in improving and developing "Miracle Rice" and the fruit-bearing tree programs in these areas. The successes of the 4th Infantry Division's efforts have contributed greatly in the "Rural-Establishment and Pacification Project" of the government of the Republic of Vietnam and reflect distinct credit upon them and their government.
