

GENERAL ORDERS }

No. 17 }

HEADQUARTERS
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON, DC, 22 September 1978

United States Army Civilian Personnel Center
(Short Title: CIVPERCEN)

1. Effective 1 October 1978, the United States Army Civilian Personnel Center is established as a Field Operating Agency under the general staff supervision of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel.

2. Effective 1 October 1978, the United States Army Civilian Personnel Field Operations Agency and the United States Army Civilian Career Management Agency, Field Operating Agencies under the general staff supervision of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Personnel, are discontinued. Concurrently, personnel and equipment from those agencies are transferred to the United States Army Civilian Personnel Center.

3. The mission of the United States Army Civilian Personnel Center is as follows:

a. Execute DA operational personnel systems for centralized career administration, personnel data systems, and program evaluation.

b. Provide policy guidance and technical assistance to major commands, installations, and activities in civilian personnel program areas.

c. Develop procedures and recommended personnel policies, procedures, systems, and programs in support of the civilian component of the Army.

d. Provide centralized management of the resources of the US Army Civilian Training, Education, and Development Student Detachment and of civilian executive development funds.

[DAPE-CRP]

By Order of the Secretary of the Army:

BERNARD W. ROGERS
General, United States Army
Chief of Staff

Official:

J. C. PENNINGTON
Brigadier General, United States Army
The Adjutant General

DISTRIBUTION:

Active Army, ARNG, USAR: To be distributed in accordance with DA Form 12-4 requirements for DA General Orders.