

GENERAL ORDERS

No. 2011-07

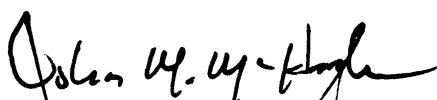

HEADQUARTERS
DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON, DC, 19 October 2011

REDESIGNATION OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY FORCES COMMAND
AS AN ARMY COMMAND

1. Effective 1 August 2011, the United States Army Forces Command (FORSCOM) (UIC: W3YBAA) is redesignated as an Army Command, under the jurisdiction of Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA), with authority, direction, and control over all assigned forces.
2. FORSCOM trains, mobilizes, deploys, sustains, transforms, and reconstitutes assigned conventional operating forces.
3. The Secretary of the Army redesignates FORSCOM as the Service Force Provider for Army conventional forces and, as such, will execute the functions, duties, and responsibilities of a Service Force Provider as required by the Secretary of Defense. Specific to the Service Force Provider mission, the Secretary of the Army delegates training and readiness oversight over Reserve Component conventional forces in the continental United States, which are not assigned to a combatant command.
4. Headquarters, Department of the Army General Orders Number 20, dated 16 October 2006, is hereby superseded.

[AFCG]

John M. McHugh
Secretary of the Army

DISTRIBUTION: This publication is available in electronic media only and is intended for the active Army, the Army National Guard/Army National Guard of the United States, and the U.S. Army Reserve.

*This General Order supersedes Department of the Army General Orders 2006-20, dated 16 October 2006.
